

CALBO's Fifth Annual Leadership & Advocacy Day
Tuesday, April 27, 2010, 10:00 am - 5:00 pm
Sacramento, California

A one-day event open to all Class I members of California Building Officials.

Why Leadership and Advocacy Day? Formal lobbying is more than just advocating for favorable outcomes, it is about educating those who make decisions that affect us. Through education, we can build a comprehensive understanding of our profession with our elected leaders and promote policy that will protect the safety and interests of those we serve.

This one-day event has been designed for all Class I members of CALBO, whether you are the government affairs novice or an active politico. Leadership & Advocacy Day participants will be briefed by CALBO's Advocacy Team in the morning, covering all topics and questions relative to our activities at the State Capitol. Following lunch, participants will walk from our meeting space at the Secretary of State's Complex to the State Capitol for pre-arranged meetings with the State Legislators that represent your jurisdiction. By meeting with the Senators and Assemblymembers that represent your jurisdiction, you are showcasing the work of your local building department, while forging relationships that can benefit your community. You will also have the opportunity to represent CALBO, promoting the best interests of local building departments and our membership.
